Prayer for Catechists

O God, our Heavenly Father, you have given us the gift of these catechists to be heralds of the Gospel to our parish family. We lift them up to you in thanksgiving and intercede for them concerning their hopes and needs. May we be attentive to the presence of your Word in them, a Word that lifts up and affirms, calls forth and challenges, is compassionate and consoles. We pray that our parish family will always be blessed with those who have responded to the call to share in Christ's prophetic mission as catechists. May we too be open to the universal call to service that Christ addresses to all of his disciples, contributing our gifts to the communion of faith, the Church. We ask this in Jesus' name. Amen.

Sunday Reading Synopsis: Discipleship entails denying our very selves and following the way of the Lord (3), a way of suffering and service (1). In professing our faith in him (2) we can rely on the Lord for strength and salvation (Ps).

STEWARDSHIP OF TIME

Blood Drive Sept 17th, 12:30-5:30 pm

Did you know that donating blood regularly can actually improve heart health? Donating can help to reduce how thick and sticky your blood is, allowing blood to flow more easily through the blood vessels and reach the heart faster. To donate, log in at RedCrossBlood.org and look for the Sacred Heart link on September 17th.

Questions? Email Bob Lung at rlung@q.com or call 360-687-6102.

Give Blood ~ Give Life

Please pray for Carolyn Meyer.

History of Popes Join us on a journey from St. Peter all the way to Pope Francis.

#75 Saint Eugene I
Pope from August 10, 654 A.D. to June 2, 657 A.D.

What was he known for?

Since Monothelitism was still a thing, St. Eugene had the same work cut out for him as St. Martin did. Immediately after becoming pope, Eugene sent an envoy to Constantinople, both to notify the emperor of his election and to continue lobbying for an orthodox profession of faith from him. The emperor, having different plans, tricked Eugene's representatives and sent back to the pope a revision of his own. St. Maximus the Confessor, while still imprisoned by the emperor, thought the revision was utter nonsense, and made his feelings known to the pope. Eugene smoothed things over as best he could, aiming for unity over polemics at every turn. Odds are good that Eugene would have met the same fate as St. Martin, had the Muslim army not overtaken Emperor Constans II at the Battle of Phoenicia in 655.

Bishop Robert Barron's newest study program

THE MASS

Walk through the Liturgy with Bishop Barron and you'll be transformed through insights on this most privileged and intimate encounter with our Lord Jesus Christ.

See how the Mass brings us out of the fallen world and into the heavenly realm, how it resonates with a call from God and a response from his people, the Church, and, most importantly, how we are intimately joined with the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of Jesus through the Holy Eucharist.

The Mass will help you understand how to fully, consciously, and actively participate in the source and summit of the Christian life.
