STEWARDSHIP OF TREASURE

Today's readings are about being chosen and sent. The prophet Amos was chosen by the Lord and sent to use his talents for the people of God. The Gospel recounts the story of the sending of the twelve. In the second reading, St. Paul reminds us that we, too, are chosen. For what have I been chosen? To whom have I been sent?

STEWARDSHIP OF TIME

History of Popes Join us on a journey from St. Peter all the way to Pope Francis.

#68 Adeodatus I

Pope from October 19, 615 A.D. to November 8, 618 A.D.

What was he known for?

St. Adeodatus was best known for being the first pope to use leaden seals on his pontifical documents, called bullae in Latin. This is where the term "papal bull" comes from, since the seals were initially used to show that a document was authentically from the pope. In fact, a seal from Adeodatus' reign is still preserved. It depicts the Good Shepherd among a flock of sheep and the letters Alpha and Omega underneath, while the opposite side reads the inscription Deusdedit Papae. Fun fact: Both "Adeodatus" and "Deusdedit" bear similar meanings, hence the confusion with what to call Pope #68. "Adeodatus" means given by God, while "Deusdedit" means God has given. As a result, both are now considered variations on the same name.
