Mission Statement

We, the Catholic Community of Sacred Heart Church and St. Joseph the Worker Mission, strive to be a living sign of Christ's love and healing power in and for the world.

15th Sunday of Ordinary Time July 14th, 2019

Congratulations Father Aloysius (aka Fr. Luigi)
On your 25th Anniversary of Ordination

Sunday Reading Synopsis:

The great commandment of love is not something “mysterious” or “remote”. Indeed, it is “very near” to us (1). Yet how difficult it is to fulfill, being neighbor to whomever is in need (3). But if we seek God (Ps), we must “go and do the same” (3), for we have been created in, for, and through Christ (2).

STEWARDSHIP OF TIME

FORMED®

THE CATHOLIC FAITH.
ON DEMAND.

Weekly Suggestions using our parish’s FORMED.ORG subscription.

This week’s focus: “the Woman”

In the Gospels we hear Jesus refer to his mother Mary as “Woman”. This reference should draw our attention to the woman mentioned in Genesis, as well as in the book of Revelation. But who is this “Woman”, and why is she so central in the history of Salvation? This powerful film presents the beautiful Catholic teaching about Mary, the mother of Jesus, and her important role in the Church and in the lives of Christians today.

This week, as we celebrate Our Lady of Mount Carmel on July 16, login to formed.org and watch "The Woman".

For your complimentary subscription, create a username and password on FORMED.org and use access code GPMZF6.

History of Popes Join us on a journey from St. Peter all the way to Pope Francis.

#109 Adrian III Pope from May 17, 884 to July 8, 885

What was he known for?

Though little is known about St. Adrian III’s brief time as pope, it’s clear that he brought the papacy back in line with the policies of John VIII, particularly when it came to disciplining the Roman nobility. The nobility seemed to stop at nothing to advance themselves at the expense of all else, which made the situation in Rome very dire. It was so bad, in fact, that Pope Adrian, a very holy man, was forced to consider unusual punishments for scheming nobles when nothing else worked. For example, one man, John VIII’s sworn enemy, George of Aventine, was tried, condemned, and blinded for his intrigues.

STEWARDSHIP OF TREASURE

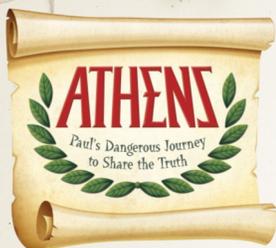

The good Samaritan was also a good steward, giving his time and his treasure to meet his neighbor’s need. At the end of this familiar story, Jesus urges His hearers—and us—to go and do the same!

RCIA

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

What is the RCIA Rite of Welcoming?

The Rite of Welcoming is for inquirers who have been previously baptized and are ready to publicly declare their intention to continue their journey toward full communion with the Catholic Church. At this Rite, they are asked if they are ready to listen to the apostles' instruction, gather with the worshipping community in prayer, and join our community in the love and service of others. They are signed with the Cross to show that they belong to Christ.

The Rite of Welcoming. Last Saturday, July 7th, at the 5 PM Mass, we welcomed Lexi McCracken, who will be preparing to make her Profession of Faith and receive the initiation sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist in the coming year. Lexi is sponsored by Kim Sparks.

Please keep in prayer Lexi and our other RCIA participants Betsy and Jill, and their families and sponsors.

If you or someone you know, are interested in becoming Catholic, contact Debbie Adams in the parish office by phone (360-687-4515) or e-mail (debbie@sacredheartbg.org).
